Description :

PDF-9b021 | "This is a book about making art. Ordinary art.

Ordinary art means something like: all art not made by Mozart.

After all, art is rarely made by Mozart-like people;

essentially—statistically speaking—there aren't any people like that.

Geniuses get made once-a-century or so, yet good art gets made all the time, so to equate the making of art with the workings of genius removes this intimately hu... Art & Fear: Observations on the Perils (and Rewards) of Artmaking: 1
