Description :

PDF-ecac0 | Dora Carrington, Mark Gertler, Paul Nash, Christopher Nevins, and Stanley Spencer were five of the most important British artists of the twentieth century. From diverse backgrounds, they met at The Slade in London between 1908 and 1910, in what was later described as the school's "last crisis of brilliance." Between 1910 and 1918 they loved, talked, and fought; they admired, conspired, and... A Crisis of Brilliance: Five Young British Artists and the Great War
