Description :

PDF-c1f0d | An insightful look at how artists choose to represent people in their work, and why. What drives artists to represent people as they do? This question, at the heart of figurative art, and how we represent ourselves as a society, is especially relevant today. Author Charlotte Mullins picks up the conversation at a time when the art world is influenced by the proliferation of images of all kinds, acr... Picturing People: The New State of the Art
